

Thousands Have Kidney

Trouble and Never Suspect It.

Prevalence of Kidney Disease.
Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalence of kidney disease. While kidney disorders are the most common diseases that prevail, they are almost the last recognized by patient and physicians, who content themselves with doctoring the effects, while the original disease undermines the system.

What To Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

"A Royal Slave."

Mr. Clarence Bennett, in introducing "A Royal Slave" to the patrons of our theater, not only promises but assures us that this production is a able corps of scenic artists and skilled mechanics, and will give our people a chance to see, not only the beautiful scenic equipment, but decidedly the most original play on the stage of this country.

It is something to be able to say that at least we can herald the coming of a new play, full of new ideas, situations and startling effects. Such is true, however, of the forth-coming production of "A Royal Slave," which is put on in a most artistic manner complete in every detail. Mr. Clarence Bennett has always brought us the finest attractions and he assures us this is his best. The play will shortly be seen at the Grand opera house, Thursday evening.

distinct departure from all others that have been presented in our city.

"A Royal Slave" was taken from an actual occurrence, the scenes being reproduced from photographs of old Mexico, around which the play was written. The characters of "Agulla," "El Capitan"—a noted bandit—and "Juan Alveraz," figure in many parts of Mexican history. The cast has been carefully selected, the members being especially engaged for their respective roles.

This is one of the most elaborate and beautifully melo-dramatic productions on the road. The scenery is the finest that the studios can furnish and is painted from photographs made in Mexico. The costumes and stage accessories are very rich and the powerful and thrilling dramatic situations, make the play a series of beautiful stage pictures. Though it is a melo-drama of the sensational sort, there is not a shot fired during the entire play, and it is possessed of real literary and dramatic merit of a high order.

This great production represents more than half a year's work by an such a fool as to pursue such an honest lowly calling. By and by when he goes into the city one of those chaps will buy him a cigar and pat him on the back and ask him if he is making a living. Well, the country editor is small potatoes in the eyes of the coco cola bosses.
